

Bulletin Board and “Free” Materials

A bulletin board and rack for handbills and pamphlets are available for use by Worth community residents and organizations.

1. Material to be posted on the bulletin board may be no larger than 8 1/2” x 14”.
2. All items to be posted on the bulletin board or distributed in the “free” materials rack shall be submitted to the Administrative Librarian or his/her designee.
3. Personal ads or notices and for-profit business ads are not accepted for posting.
4. Priority is given to local notices.
5. Duration of the posting and availability of “free” materials is at the discretion of the Administrative Librarian or her designee.
6. Handbills, pamphlets, bookmarks and other materials which the public may take free of charge are placed in the rack for that purpose.
7. The library is not responsible for the content of any notice, handbill, pamphlet, etc. on the bulletin board or in the “Free” materials rack
8. Pamphlets, posters and other materials supporting political agendas, candidates, or parties may not be posted or distributed.

Approved January 12,1999