

Display Case Policy

The library encourages displays of cultural, educational, or general interest in its display case.

1. The owner must submit the Application for Display Case to the Library. All displays must receive advance approval from the Administrative Librarian or his/her designee.
2. When material is at the Library on temporary display, the Library will keep the materials under lock and key, and the Library will endeavor to protect the material, but shall assume no responsibility for loss or damage of items at any time, including while in the case, during transit, and/or set-up or take-down of the display.
3. Exhibits shall be scheduled for thirty [30] days. Exhibits may be scheduled for a longer period at the discretion of the Administrative Librarian or his/her designee.
4. The owner shall provide the library with an inventory and estimated value of the displayed items prior to setting up the display.
5. The owner is encouraged to verify that his/her homeowner's policy covers the display of valuable items and may wish to obtain supplemental coverage.
6. Overt advertising for business or political purposes is not permitted.
